

New Horizon 2: Unit 7: World Heritage Sites
Passive Voice Grammar Intro

Japan's World Heritage is known by many people.

{Show interactive map and Japan's page on www.whc.unesco.org}

Many World Heritage Sites are found in Australia, too.

How many? {five; ten; twenty; fifty; one hundred} {Ask for show of hands for answers. Then, show interactive map and Australia's page on www.whc.unesco.org}.

The Blue Mountains are loved by many people.

The Sydney Opera House is used for concerts. It was built from 1959 to 1973. It was selected as World Heritage in 2007.

Lord Howe Island isn't known by many people. In 2001, giant {insects; snakes; statues} were discovered there.

{Show pictures of the Lord Howe Island stick insect}

{After the first reading, repeat each example of the passive voice grammar. Ask the class to translate each in order to check the meaning}