Lesson 8 Part 1 (p. 102-103) Going to (Verb)

Activity

(1) Unicorn Game: Speaking and Listening Activity (20 minutes)

- a. Each student will be given a piece of paper with a sentence: "I am going to _____."
- b. There are 10 different sentences. For each sentence, there will be 2 or 3 students with the same sentence. But there is 1 sentence with only 1 student. This is the "unicorn" / unique sentence.
- c. Students to read and practice speaking their sentence. (1 minute)
- d. The whole class will practice speaking the question: "What are you going to do this weekend?" (1 minute)
- e. When the teacher says Go, everyone will find a classmate and ask the question, "What are you going to do this weekend?". The partner will answer with his/her sentence, "I am going to _____." Then, exchange roles of who will ask and who will answer. (15 minutes)
- f. Students must write their classmates' names on the Worksheet.
- g. The goal of the game is to find the Unicorn – the classmate who will do his/her activity alone.
- h. The first student to write the unicorn's name wins.

(2) Writing Activity: (20 minutes)

- a. At the back of the worksheet, students to write sentences about their classmates's answers in the Unicorn game, using "going to".

Examples:

Sana is going to visit the museum.

Yukina and Mizuki are going to play soccer.

Kan, Yuya and Shin are going to wash their bikes.

- b. They also have to write 1 original sentence using "going to". It should be different from the examples given in the game or in the textbook.
- c. Students can help each other in writing and thinking.
- d. If there is time, teacher can ask for volunteers to read their original sentence to the class.
